

A watercolor painting of a garden scene. In the foreground, there are several clusters of flowers, including pink roses, yellow daisies, and blue hydrangeas. Behind the flowers is a white picket fence. In the background, there are green bushes and a white arched structure, possibly a garden archway. The overall style is soft and painterly.

Kay Barnes Watercolor Class Description

Winter Quarter 2010

Building a painting is a process based on sound principals. This quarter of classes we will work on understanding and employing these tenants in lessons designed to help you learn how to better utilize these building blocks. We want to also explore a variety of approaches to study the techniques that work best to develop your paintings. Join us to grow your skills and enjoy the adventure in a safe and memorable journey in watercolor!

For more information please call Kay Barnes at 206 372 7611 or e-mail her at kaybarnes.art@verizon.net. She will be happy to answer any questions you may have.

For more information please call Kay Barnes at 206 372 7611 or go online at kaybarnes.com or e-mail her at kaybarnes.art@verizon.net. She will be happy to answer any questions you may have.